If you need a little breathing space to get on top of your debt, the Co-operative Bank Fair Rate credit card provides a balance transfer rate of 6 months at 0% p.a. Also, with one of the lowest annual fees on the market and an ongoing competitive interest rate of 12.95% p.a., it could be an option if you don't require a premium credit card. Just remember, its interest rate is floating and may change at any time.
